MANY WANT TO WIN

Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists In It.

THE BATTLE NEXT MONDAY

Democrats Have Done All They Could to Tear Asunder the Republican Party. Prohibitionists Want to Slip Into Office. Republicans Will as Usual Elect the Ticket.

Monday is election day, and the situation in the city is interesting, to say the least, even though some of the prophets are declaring that they know all about it, and can name the winners from the top to the last name on the various tickets.

As usual the Democratic leaders have been planning to slip into office, while they arrayed a portion of the Republican population of the city against that body desirous of standing by the ticket as it was nominated. Whether they will be successful remains to be seen, but there is little doubt that the Prohibitionists are up and doing, working faithfully for what they evidently believe to be the right. Many Republicans are in the meantime doing nothing, others are declaring their intention of supporting the Prohibition nominees for council, and the body are standing with the ticket as it was nominated. They argue that the Republicans of the city were given an opportunity to aid in selecting the ticket, some of them refused to take part in the primaries, and now they have no ground for condemning the choice of those who did vote. There is a great deal of earnest work being done for the Republican ticket. Friends of the candidates are working with a will, and so far as the township portion is concerned it is generally conceded that the other two parties will go down to ignominious defeat. The center of the battle is in the councilmanic ticket, and the Prohibitionists have their banner high in the air. In the First ward they are fighting for their candidate against the onslaught of some dissatisfied Republicans and all the Democratic force. There seems to be no ray of hope in the cloudy atmosphere above them, and McDole, the Democrat, has no chance to win. In the Second ward Chal Stewart is fighting the Democrats and Prohibitionists in a way that may mean great things when the votes are counted Monday night. He has the backing of any number of good citizens in the ward, who are working hard to give him the position he seeks. In the Third ward there is a spirited contest with Grafton, George and Moore in the battle. Grafton was charged with being a Democrat, and many Republicans refuse to support him on that ground, while Moore and George are pounding away with might and main. Moore is conceded to be the candidate of the Democratic ring, and George is a Prohibitionist without regard to any other principle. A great deal of his strength comes from the Republicans, who will not vote for Grafton, and his only chance for securing the position comes from that source. All the Democrats in the ward are Moore men, and according to the time honored custom expect to see him slide in because of the difference in the Republican ranks. If the men of Grafton's party stand with him he will be elected, if not the councilman from the Third ward will be Moore or George. Perhaps the most interesting fight of the bunch is in the Fourth, where Peake, Aten and Tracy have their coats off, and are working in their respective causes. Tracy is the Democrat who was formerly employed as a laborer in the street department, and is probably being rewarded for his services in the case against Commissioner Welsh by the nomination. At best he is a nonentity in the campaign, and will not get his party strength. Peake is running on his record of six years in council, and in a card in the News Review yesterday declared that he was not in the interests of the saloons. Whether the terms he served will be against him remains to appear, but it is evident that the Prohibitionists are endeavoring to down him because of what they claim is his whisky policy. He declared in the News Review that he could not be controlled by any saloon man in the city nor would be in any way affected by them. The card caused no end of talk in the Fourth ward last night. The Prohibitionists are making a strong canvass for Aten, some of them urging Republicans to forsake the ticket and follow them. There is little doubt that they will poll anything but a strong vote.

The remainder of the Republican ticket will be elected from present appearances, since it seems certain that the attack upon W. L. Smith by the women will amount to little more than their own party, and the Prohibitionists are not going to get a big vote outside of their candidates for council. The splendid record of Mr. Smith in the board of education, the attainments and qualifications of the candidates for other positions, will act in a manner that cannot be doubted. J. N. Rose and George Morley have the best of the race from the day they were announced, and their position is assured. The only remaining action for Republicans is to vote the ticket on Monday, and not a Democrat or Prohibitionist will warm a chair in council for the next year.

Summing the situation from reports that come from every ward in the city, there is but one result. The Republicans will win out in the majority of the contests; the Prohibitionists may get a man or two; the Democratic tricksters who have been instrumental in bringing about the dissension in the Republican ranks, and finding it to be a good thing, will get nothing. Their record is so well known that their influence is dead—provided there ever was a time when it was alive.

SHOW YOUR COLORS.

A Woman Voter Has a Few Words of Advice.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—It is the women voters of East Liverpool I want to address, and the question is how we shall vote. The right given us is small, yet it is a stepping stone to what we may get in the future. Shall we cast our vote for the candidates of the party that by years of suffering and privation never equalled in the world's history made this the greatest nation on earth, or shall we vote Prohibition, throwing our vote away, and countenancing a party that by selfish administration has clogged the wheels of commerce and caused a cloud to cover our once prosperous and happy people. There are none more bitterly opposed to liquor than I. The platform is all right, but it is a question that can never be settled until we, the women, have the right of franchise. Then we will make short work of it. This is a question of religion, and if all Christian men and women would live to their professions, we would have no saloons. Although we have no voice in the choice of the men who govern the nation, we have a chance to show our colors. Let us see to it that we vote straight, and back our first ballot with the stars and stripes, encouraging justice and right, and give fresh hope to the men who can vote to start the wheels of the mills and put every pottery in operation. Let us vote to feed and clothe the starving and bring comfort once more to desolate homes, color to the faded cheek, and happiness to a sorrowing people. The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rocks the world, and the time is coming when we will rock it to our own lullaby; but it is not yet. Then we will dispose of the liquor question; but now we want justice and right. I appeal to every woman to stand by the old flag and the old Republican party. I will cast my vote at the foot of Columbia, and stand by the principles of our fathers, who made and saved the nation, and I will stand by the fathers, sons and brothers who now fill soldiers graves that they may not be dishonored. Women, when you vote, vote the Republican ticket.

A REPUBLICAN WOMAN.

NATURALIZED WOMEN.

They Can Vote When They Have Their Husbands Papers.

MR. EDITOR:—Will you please give us the law in regard to a foreign born woman voting for the school board, as something if her husband has his papers that his wife is entitled to vote? Has there been a ruling by the state board of election to that effect? I ask this in the interest of all women as we want to be sure we are right.

EQUAL RIGHTS.

C. A. Ferguson says that the board has not ruled on the matter but he was under the impression that Secretary Taylor had given an opinion. In the absence of any law he would rule from a stand point of common sense that the judges should allow foreign born women to vote when they brought their husbands naturalization papers with them.

Section 1994 of the statutes says: "Any woman who is now or may hereafter be married to a citizen of the United States, and who might herself be lawfully naturalized, shall be deemed a citizen."

Where You Will Vote.

Of course all the men know where to vote, but for the sake of the ladies the following list of polling places is published:

First ward—First precinct, M. W.

BLOOD STILL THERE

Neighbors Did Not Wash the Face of the Dead Justice.

THE BODY LAY ON A LOUNGE

Ghastly Sight in the Faulks House When Squire Rose Arrived to Hold the Inquest Yesterday Afternoon—Testimony of the Witnesses—A Verdict of Suicide.

When Squire Rose returned from St. Clair township last night it was with the official knowledge that Squire Faulks had taken his own life.

When he reached the house beyond Calcutta he found that the body had been cut down, and was lying on a lounge in the condition it had been found by the man Geary. Blood covered the face and clothing, presenting a ghastly sight, while the half open eyes seemed to reproach the neighbors for the neglect. The mark left by the rope was glaringly livid, and two holes in the left side of the head showed where the bullets from a Sharp's four barreled revolver had plowed their way to the brain. On the person of the suicide were found two pocket books and the leg of an old stocking. In these were $5.20 in silver and a paper dollar. The last was found in a vest that was worn under the shirt. There were also a number of private papers, among them being a lumber bill from J. T. Smith of this city, and a note given by the late O. R. House. A receipt showing that the deceased had made a payment on a mortgage to P. M. Smith of Wellsville. There was also found the following addressed to J. N. M., and dated March 17.

"I think I am feeling better today, and there have been times of late I came near breathing my last. As a precaution I send my last will, and a few of my most important papers for you to place in your safe for the present. I have no good way of keeping things safe any more. John knows nothing more than that he is to deliver the package to you, and you will oblige me by saying nothing about the business whatever."

It was afterward learned that the letter was delivered to J. N. Mehaffy, of Calcutta. Another letter was written at the same time to a nephew of the deceased, but was only delivered this week. In that he wanted his nephew and Mehaffy appointed executors of his estate, and these words:

"If you find my dead body, my life will have been taken by my own hand." At that time he was discouraged and complained of being in poor health. The first witness called was John Geary, the man who found the body. He said that he had been employed by the squire Nov. 22, and at no time had there ever been a difference of opinion between them. He last saw the deceased alive about 9 o'clock yesterday morning when he started for Calcutta. When he returned he went to the house, and not finding the squire there, walked to the barn. He was nowhere to be seen and Geary noticed that the door of the corn crib was open. He looked in, but seeing nothing walked away. Not being able to find the squire he again went to the crib, and looking in saw the body. Then he went to the Rambo house, but no one was at home and he walked to Purinton's. Here he told his story and George Purinton and his brother helped him cut the body down. He never heard deceased say anything about taking his own life.

Bert Purinton, a corporal in Company E, who has been staying in the country, said: "I knew deceased when I saw him, and I helped to cut the body down. When I first looked in the crib his back was turned toward the door, a rope was about his neck, and the feet were one and one-half feet from the floor. Geary told us the door was tied on the inside with a string, and he spoke to Faulks three times, but received no answer. Geary was nervous and white when the body was being taken down, and had little to say."

C. A. Purinton said he was a blacksmith, living in Liverpool township, and he first learned that Faulks had hanged himself yesterday morning. "I saw Geary in front of my brother's house, and he was excited and nervous. He told us about the string on the door, and said that when he first looked in he thought the squire had smothered himself under a barrel. When we got there a half-bushel measure was on top of the obstruction. The squire was bleeding at the mouth and nose, and there was blood on the side of his head. More blood could be seen where the revolver lay about two feet back of the body. A white cloth with blood on it lay on the floor, and it looked as though he had wiped his face on it. A board, almost perpendicular, stood against the wall, and the blood marks on it looked as though he had caught it in his hand."

Reverend Nicholls, a minister from Royalton, gave the facts as they were given by the Purinton boys, saying that Geary looked as excited as most men would in the circumstances. He turned the body around and noted the bullet holes and blood.

Dr. L. A. Lemmon, of Calcutta, said that he had been called to examine the body, and found that there were two bullet holes in the head, one an inch and a half above the right ear and the other the same distance above and to the front of the first. The first shot fractured the skull, but the second would not cause death. Death would have resulted from strangulation or the pistol shot.

Geary was recalled and said that he meant the door was unhooked when he said it was open. He did not enter the first time he went to the crib.

After hearing all the testimony Squire Rose adjourned the inquest until today, when he hoped to have all the nephew knows about the matter before rendering a verdict.

Edwin S. Faulks, the nephew of the deceased, testified that he had last seen deceased alive on Thursday about 4 o'clock. The letter was found in the squire's house by Geary, who handed it to the brother of the witness and the latter got it from him. It was addressed "Mr. Edwin S. Faulks, Present. From D. H. Faulks." The nephew found in the letter instructions about his property, stating that he had made a will and had placed it in the care of Mehaffy; also that he had named us as his executors. He also gave directions about his property and his body after his death. He directed that he be buried alongside his sister, Margaret, in Long's Run cemetery; also that they take immediate possession of his person and property after his death. This letter was without date, and witness found written on the back as if recently, perhaps yesterday morning he thought, these words: "Of course I die of my own hands. Give my respects to everybody of the township." The initials "D. H. F." were affixed to this last message.

Squire Rose's verdict was rendered this afternoon and was that Daniel H. Faulks, J. P., came to his death by hanging and pistol shots fired by his own hand.

The funeral will take place from the Faulks residence at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Sued For Bills.

Dr. W. A. Shannon, of Elwood City, Pa., sues John S. Dixon for $13.50, medical services. Trial before Squire Rose on Thursday next at 9 o'clock.

J. R. Hill sues William Wynne for $10.00, a laundry bill, and Squire Rose will hear the case on Wednesday at 9 o'clock.

The Schneider-Burford Brothers nail case was continued in Squire Manley's court this morning until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Resigned His Position.

Sherman T. Herbert, who has long been connected with the Pottery National bank as paying teller, has resigned his position and severs his connection with that institution today. Mr. Herbert will enter the insurance field, and with his extensive business knowledge will undoubtedly be successful. The position at the bank will be taken by Harry Clark, who has long been a clerk at the freight depot.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president today appointed Charles Edgar Brown postmaster in Cincinnati, John C. Hutchins in Cleveland, and Mary Bergerdorf at Ripley. The fight for the Cleveland and Cincinnati offices was bitter, and some surprise is expressed among Ohio people here that the president should rule in this way.

BAXTER WAS BITTEN

A West End Man Interviewed a Vicious Dog.

CANINE TAX COMES HIGH NOW

William Eckert Owned a Dog Which the People Did Not Like—Yesterday It Took a Mouthful Out of J. N. Baxter's Leg, and He Called at City Hall—Other Cases.

William Eckert's dog tax this year will amount to $10.00, or thereabouts, and the greater part has already been accounted for.

It seems that Eckert has been keeping a canine not noted for its angelic temperament, but rather inclined to get real mad at any person with whom he was not intimately acquainted. William's dog has been a source of annoyance to the peace-loving residents of West End, and they have frequently used language unfit for publication while wishing that it would rain shotguns. At any rate, J. N. Baxter does not cherish an ambition to present his visiting card at the kennel. He was passing along the street in front of Eckert's house yesterday when the dog appeared, and without waiting to ask permission secured a mouthful out of the gentleman's leg. That bite completely demoralized a $10 bill belonging to the owner of the dog. Baxter visited the mayor's office after Eckert had refused to kill the dog, and swore out a warrant against Eckert for keeping a vicious dog. Officer Supplee arrested Eckert, and he admitted to the mayor that it was best not to look cross-eyed at the animal. The mayor accordingly fined him $9.00.

Ralph Wood is wanted by the police to answer a charge of disorderly conduct. He is said to have been implicated in the trouble that cost Gillespie and Niblock their money, and promised to be at city hall last night. He failed to appear.

Thomas Kephart, the man who was fined for shooting, has not yet complied with the demands of Mayor Gilbert, and is still in jail.

John Sant's Position.

Referring to statements in the Crisis of the 28th and 29th inst., I wish to most emphatically deny that I have ever announced my intention to take my claim against the city into the courts, or that I have ever threatened to bring suit against the members personally who signed my contract. It would be impossible for me to notice all the misstatements which have appeared in the Crisis in this connection, and I think the character of that paper makes it unnecessary.

JOHN SANT.

Afraid of Fire.

Chief Adam, of the fire department, has his hands full these days keeping a watchful eye on people who persist in building fires in their back yards and in the alleys. There is an ordinance against endangering property in this way, and the chief is doing all he can to have it enforced. He says, however, that he will be compelled to order an arrest or two if the practice is continued.

George Morley's Position.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—The story is being circulated by the Democrats that I have turned my back on the Republican candidate for council in the Third ward, and I desire to denounce it as a lie without foundation. I have been a Republican since the party was born, and have the first time to bolt the ticket.

GEORGE MORLEY.

A Merry Party.

A merry party of 20 young people pleasantly surprised Enoch Jones at his home on Jethro street last night. The event was the celebration of his 24th birthday, and after a pleasant evening spent in music and games the party broke up at midnight.

Died Thursday.

An infant child of William Arb, Calcutta road, died Thursday and the funeral took place from the residence at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon with interment in Spring Grove cemetery.

Harry West Better.

The many friends in this city of Harry West will be pleased to know that he is some better. His father and mother are still at his bedside, as he is not yet out of danger.

Reciprocity.

Thomas Wedgewood moved here today from Beaver Falls. Mrs. William Rickey has moved, with her family, from this city to New Brighton.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, MAR. 30.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

SOME of the hottest municipal contests known in years are being waged in Ohio at this minute. The Democrats having taken little interest in the campaign last fall seem to be in training for the hard fight they have before them this year.

CANDIDATES, whose claims will not be considered until the next Republican campaign begins in this county, are already appearing before the footlights. Some are men well worthy the respect and esteem of Columbiana county people and will be holding down seats in the courthouse before many years go by.

THE Democrats are great financiers
according to their own belief, yet their theories are at fault when carried out in the finances of the country.
The deficit for the month will be over $2,000,000, and for the fiscal year it is already $38,000,000. As the government closes their business transactions
every year it can be seen what a tremendous effort will be required to wipe out the debt, and start the new year with clean books.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

They should be intelligent and trustworthy men. They should possess high business qualifications. They should be earnest in their advocacy of
the improvement of our school system, always and ever endeavoring to bring the public schools of East Liverpool to such a high standard of excellence as to cause the schools of this city to become famous throughout the land.
And where can we find better men
than are the candidates on the Republican ticket? Messrs. Smith and Thomas will fill the bill to a nicety.
They are intelligent, pushing, earnest workers, and they will do their utmost to have the city schools reach
the very highest standard possible.
They are staunch and true Republicans, and every Republican voter in East Liverpool should cast a vote for them on Monday, April 1.

THE LAST RUSH.

The last rush before the primaries
begins on Monday, and every candidate will be in the field from that time until the polls close on April 13.
Some hard work is being done, and all the brains that the different candidates can command are being brought into the fight, but to the present time the amount of money expended would not make any one aspirant. Independent of labor for the rest of his mortal days. There is a commendable feeling among the candidates, and they frequently meet and discuss each other's chances. Deals by the dozen have been made and broken, but through it all there has been little if any feeling of resentment. Men who can not win may feel their disappointment keenly the first few weeks after election, but there is no indication to show that they will not act the part of men, and with one accord aid in electing the ticket.

Ten Indictments Returned.

KANSAS CITY, March 30.—The special
grand jury which has been investigating election fraud cases, has returned ten indictments against alleged election thieves. Two of the indictments are against Charles S. Owsley, formerly recorder of voters.

A Banker Still Missing.

SYRACUSE, March 30.—President Fitz Boynston of the Second National bank of Cortland, who left his home Feb. 3
and mailed his resignation to the board of directors from Detroit, has not since been heard from, and his whereabouts is a mystery.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Sadler, lieutenant governor of the state, has been arrested in Eureka county on a charge of embezzlement.

SECRETARY TO BE LEFT IN CHARGE.

The Situation the Same as During Our Diplomatic Difference With Italy—State Department Officials Intimate It is a Vacation.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—There are indications that Mr. Willis, our minister to Hawaii, is preparing to take a leave of absence from his post. One story is that he will go to Japan for a time, and another is that he will return to the United States. The state department officials will not say anything about the matter, but content themselves with pointing to the fact that the minister has now been at his post for more than a year according to the usual practice of the department, is entitled to a leave of absence if he desires it and the conditions in the country to which he is accredited admit of his leaving. It would not be surprising therefore, if the minister were found to be a passenger on the United States steamship

Island, as she must do shortly to be not turn up before that time.

During his absence the United States legation at Honolulu will be left in charge of Mr. Ellis Mills, the secretary of legation, which will exactly correspond in official status with that of the Hawaiian legation at Washington. In this case the conditions will be precisely parallel to those in Rome and Washington at the time of the Chilean trouble four years ago, when Baron Fava left Washington for Italy and United States Minister Porter spent 19 months roaming through Switzerland
and other European countries, on leave under full pay, leaving the legation in Rome in the hands of Charge Whitehouse, and the Italian legation in Washington in care of the Marquis Rudini.

FRED DOUGLASS' WILL.

The Document Admitted to Probate—Its Provisions.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The will of the late Frederick Douglass has been filed here. It is dated Aug. 30, 1886, and gives the widow the house and 15 acres of land in Anacostia, D. C., his writings, books, papers, pictures and paintings, except a portrait of himself,
which goes to the daughter, Rosetta D.
Sprague.

The widow also gets $10,000 in United States bonds and $10,000 in money, the latter to be derived from other property
not already mentioned. The daughter, Rosetta D. Sprague, and the three sons, Lewis, Frederick and Charles, receive an equal share, amounting to about $15,000 each in value, of the remaining property. The petition for probating the will sets forth that the deceased died possessing about $47,000 in personal property.

Streit In Danger of Lynching.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., March 30.—Sheriff Allen has received word that threats of lynching Noah Streit are made in the neighborhood where his father, Stewart Streit, was murdered, and extra guards have been placed about the jail to be continued indefinitely. The prisoner will not say what he thinks of his wife's confession, but asserts that he can prove his innocence.

Arrested For a Bad Crime.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 30.—Seymour
Jackson, cashier of Goddard bank at Ensenada, has been arrested on suspicion of having robbed the bank of $12-500 on March 20, the same night of the bullion robbery at Riveroll's shipping office there. Jackson is in jail, as no bail is allowed in Mexico when the crime charged is of so grave a nature.

One Ohio Road Wants What Another

CLEVELAND, March 30.—The newly-organized Lima and Northern Railroad company has begun condemnation proceedings in the United States district court to obtain possession of 40 miles of prepared roadbed in Allen and Hardin counties, O., claimed by the Lima and Milwaukee Railroad company, now in the hands of a receiver.

The Lima and Milwaukee company at once demanded a postponement in order to show that they do not intend to abandon the property, as was supposed by the petitioners.

Robinson at It Again.

CLEVELAND, March 30.—Investigation shows that James Robinson, who is now under arrest in Chicago for violating the postal laws, is the same man who,
until a few months ago, published The Ladies' Monthly Gem, in this city.
Robinson, after defrauding his victims
out of thousands of dollars by means of a "snap" game and prize bogus tickets, was arrested for violating the postal laws. He jumped his bail bond of $1,000 and fled to Canada. The U.
S. authorities here did not at first believe that Robinson would dare start up business again so soon after his flight under the same name. They have now, however, received information
which makes it sure that the Chicago
man is the one wanted.

A BOWER OF BEAUTY

Seventh Annual Opening of the Popular People's Store.

PALMS, FLOWERS AND MUSIC

Please the Senses of an Immense Crowd of People—The Store Packed to the Doors and Visitors are Delighted—Success of the Oldest Dry Goods House in the City.

The seventh annual opening of the People's store is a glowing success. The first night demonstrated this, and this evening cannot fail to add the brightest finishing touches.

The mammoth dry goods house, so cleverly managed by Mr. Henry E. Porter, was a bower of beauty last night. Never before has such neatness in decoration been displayed, more pleasing music rendered or such a corps of handsome, bright-faced clerks ready to answer questions skillfully and with the utmost politeness, and never before has a crowd gone home better satisfied. Beautiful palms and plants and fragrant flowers on every hand, laces and fine fabrics deftly hung to please the eye of the most critical, strains of sweet music awakening responsive melody in nature—all delighted the crowd of people who packed the store rooms to the doors. Manager Beymer and Miss Hard are credited with the decorative designs, and had reason to feel proud.

The piano was furnished by the Smith Music company and is the finest of its kind. It is the Crown piano in walnut case, and with four pedals so arranged that the player can imitate with it a guitar, mandolin, banjo, zither or bagpipe, in addition to the regular chords. It attracted general attention and favorable comment.

The hundreds of purchases made by eager buyers prove the popularity of the People's store and each purchaser was delighted to receive a coupon entitling them to a pretty souvenir at the department presided over by Miss Beebout.

Operated as it is, on the metropolitan plan, the People's store will never fail to please. Mr. Porter's is the oldest dry goods house in the city, all others having moved or changed the firm names since his arrival. A system unequalled, an infallible rule of selling goods on their merits, has made the People's store what it is today, a pride to its owner and to the Ceramic city.

Golden Medical DISCOVERY

Cures Ninety-eight per cent. of all cases of Consumption, in all its Earlier Stages.

Although by many believed to be incurable, there is evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large percentage of cases, and we believe, fully 98 per cent. are cured by "Golden Medical Discovery," even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced house physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extracts of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain.

The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. Address for Book, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

How the Women Vote.

A practice vote was held by the women at the Methodist Protestant church last night, and the officers of the election had their hands full while the 50 ballots were being cast. The ladies were questioned regarding their eligibility, and it was developed that one vote, if cast, would have been illegal. After the election was over the ballots were counted and only two were thrown out. These were marked so that the real intent of the voters could not be divined. There were many ladies present who did not vote, but watched the proceedings with interest.
